A Victorian Christmas Scrapbook

... the festive interactive days at

The Judge's Lodging

In December 1870, the servants of the Judge's Lodging were busying themselves in preparation for the festive season... The smell of plum pudding drifted through the house as they strung garlands of holly and ivy over the fireplace in the warm glow of gaslight.

Meet the Victorian servants and experience a true Victorian Christmas...

- Get a close-up look at Victorian toys and play games
- Learn about Christmas dinner and how both rich and poor spent their festive season.
- Marvel at the huge Christmas tree decorated with traditional hand-made items and make your own decorations to take home.
- Have fun with masks, watch a real magic lantern show and explore old Christmas cards
- Explore all the period rooms, both upstairs and downstairs...and of course, visit the prisoners' cells!

Your arrival will be welcomed with roaring fires and traditional festive decorations.
